

Investiture/Rededication Ceremony

Items needed: 3 white candles and ten of any color

#1 The three tall white tapers symbolize the threefold purpose of Girl Scouting as expressed in our Promise. The first part concerns service to God and our country (lights center candle). The second part refers to help people at all times (lights second candle). The third part is our promise to live by the Girl Scout Law (lights third candle). You may have the girls say the Promise.

#2 Each of the other candles represents one part of our Girl Scout Law.

10 girls: each lights one candle from the center candle and repeats her part of the Law.
